Courage is
the brave one,
always trying
something new.
